

Roommates no More

Whoops... Sorry, that spell wasn't meant for you. See I don't have any clean underwear, so I was planning on transforming this comb into a new pair. When you came in unexpectedly, I accidentally cast it on you! Sorry about that.

What the FUCK!? If you transformed my by accident, did you also PUT ME ON by accident!?

Well I still need a pair of panties to wear, silly...

So turn me back and change the comb like
you were going to do!
Don't wear me like a psychopath!

Hmmm... nah... I mean this is kind of win-win for me... I get clean clothes and now I get a dorm room all to myself!

Wait, what? You're... you're going to keep me?

Yeah, at least for a while. I mean the laundry room is so far away, it might take me a while get down there...

What... NO! TURN ME BACK NOW!

Oh come on, you know human-to-object is easier than human-to-object. But you know what IS easy? A silence spell!

Wait no! You don't need an object-to-human...

...spell, you just need a revert spell... Fuck... She silenced me...

You know, this was so much better than transforming my comb...

Goddamn it... Is she ever going to transform me back?
